Over two days multi-award winning filmmaker and NZ Arts Laureate Leanne Pooley will share the lessons she's learned in her 25 years as a director. From the initial idea to realising the final film the seminar will cover every stage of the documentary making process.

Leanne Pooley is one of NZ's most accomplished documentary filmmakers. Her films have screened in over 100 countries and on the world's major networks (including The BBC, PBS, Discovery, ABC, TVNZ). She has won numerous awards at international film festivals and was made an Officer of the New Zealand Order of Merit in 2017 for her contribution to documentary.
